

When this card is discarded [during your turn], target another player and guess what they are holding. If you guess correctly, they are out of the round. If not, nothing happens. You are not permitted to guess that they are holding 1

When this card is discarded [during your turn], nothing happens.

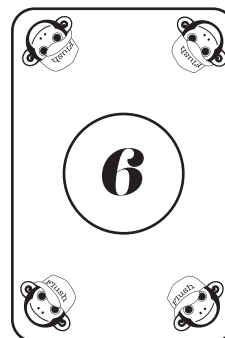

When this card is discarded [during your turn], you target another player. The two of you compare cards, if one of you has a lower card, they are out of the round.

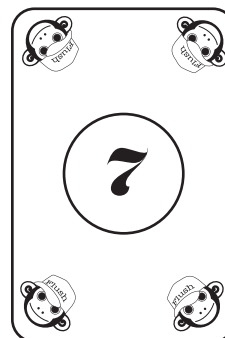

When this card is discarded [at any time], the player can not be targetted until the start of their next turn.

When this card is discarded [during your turn], you pick (target) a player (you are allowed to target yourself). The targetted player must discard the card they are holding and get a new one from the deck. If the deck is empty, they are given the card which was put aside at the beginning of the round.

When this card is discarded [during your turn], you pick (target) another player. The two of you swap cards (each of you only have one card at this point).

This card doesn't do anything when discarded. However, it must be discarded in preference to 6 or 5. That is, you can't keep 7 and throw out 6 or 5.

If a player ever discards this card (for any reason), they are out of the round immediately.
